

Directions to Robert Reed Park

From The Chincoteague Drawbridge

- At the traffic light at the foot of the drawbridge turn RIGHT on to Main Street.
- Travel about half a mile into the old downtown of Chincoteague. At the Valero Gas Station you may turn RIGHT into a public parking lot that surrounds Robert Reed Park. There are a limited number of spaces here.
- You may also pass Church Street and turn LEFT onto Post Office Lane. A larger public lot is located at the end of Post Office Land. The lot is also accessible by turning LEFT at the next intersection onto Mumford Street
- Robert Reed Park is located between Main Street and the Chincoteague Channel. Access by foot via the Main Street Sidewalk is obtained between the bronze statue of Misty the Chincoteague pony and the Chincoteague Island Library. Look for the flag pole and the blue roof of the pavilion in the Park.
