

ANTHONY BURCHER

Anthony Burcher grew up in Grafton VA, and now tells of that experience in ways that will make you laugh until your sides split. He spent most of his young life hearing himself described as "He Ain't Right..."

Anthony's gift (or curse) of wit has entertained friends and family for a generation. Now his humor and his mastery of "Spoonerisms" (aka "lackwards banguage") entertains audiences in his native Virginia and coast to coast. Anthony's book, 101 Games that Teach Storytelling Skills, has been honored by Storytelling World and his latest CD's delight listeners of all ages.
