

Sue Karch is a returning instructor at CCA. Her Card Making classes are always popular and fill up early. She says about herself: "I have always loved working with paper! In the last 9 years I have expanded to card making. There are new techniques popping up every day...so much to learn! I want to share just a few this visit."